Subject: Celebration of Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav – 2025

Dear Teachers,

As per the above-mentioned CBSE circular, our school will observe Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav 2025 from 4th December to 11th December 2025. This event marks the birth anniversary of Mahakavi Subramania Bharati and aims to celebrate India's linguistic diversity and cultural unity.

The theme for this year is:

“Many Languages, One Emotion”

Teachers are requested to plan and organise activities to help students appreciate Indian languages, promote multilingual learning, and strengthen national unity through linguistic inclusivity.

Objectives of the Utsav

- Enhance students' appreciation for Indian languages and literature
- Promote the spirit of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat
- Encourage students to learn an additional Bharatiya Bhasha
- Support the national vision of a multilingual, knowledge-driven society

A concept note and suggestive activity list (Annexure-1 of the CBSE circular) may be used for reference while planning activities.

Day-wise Themes (4–11 December 2025)

Teachers are requested to conduct activities according to the following schedule:

Day 1 – 04 December (Thursday)

Language Tree Display and Language Heritage Wall

Day 2 – 05 December (Friday)

Poetry Across Languages and Music Through Languages

Day 3 – 06 December (Saturday)

Festivals of Many Tongues and Voice of Language Podcast

Day 4 – 08 December (Monday)

Unity in Proverbs and Bhasha Mitra Collaboration

Day 5 – 09 December (Tuesday)

Bhasha Bandhu Letters and Story Chain in Multiple Languages

Day 6 – 10 December (Wednesday)

Language Exploration Clubs

Day 7 – 11 December (Thursday)
