Subject: Use of Motivational Remarks During Notebook Correction

Dear Teachers,

This is to kindly remind all staff members to include motivational and encouraging remarks while correcting students' notebooks. A few positive words can go a long way in inspiring students and nurturing their love for learning.

You may use a variety of comments such as:

“Keep it up!”

“Good handwriting!”

“Nice effort, try to be more detailed.”

“You’re improving well!”

“Excellent presentation!”

“Very neat and clean work.”

“Great improvement from last time!”

“Creative work – well done!”

“Keep practicing, you’re almost there!”

“Good attempt – don’t give up!”

“Proud of your progress!”

“Impressive use of vocabulary!”

Let us make notebook correction a meaningful and motivating experience for our learners.

Thank you for your continued dedication and cooperation.

Warm regards,

Principal
