VASANT PANCHAMI CELEBRATION REPORT

Date: 23rd January, 2026

Occasion: Vasant Panchami & Commemoration of 200 Years of Shikshapatri

Venue: School Campus

INTRODUCTION

Chinmay International School (CBSE), Karjan celebrated Vasant Panchami with great devotion, enthusiasm, and spiritual fervor, along with the commemoration of 200 years of the sacred Shikshapatri given by Bhagwan Swaminarayan. The occasion was marked by a deep sense of reverence, cultural pride, and commitment to values.

Vasant Panchami signifies the arrival of spring and is dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, the embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, and learning. The celebration aimed to instill in students a respect for education and encourage them to seek knowledge with sincerity and dedication.

The commemoration of 200 years of the Shikshapatri added a special dimension to the program, highlighting the importance of moral values, discipline, and righteous living. The event successfully integrated spiritual teachings with educational values, making it both enriching and inspiring for all.

OBJECTIVES OF THE CELEBRATION

The main objectives of celebrating Vasant Panchami and commemorating the 200th anniversary of the Shikshapatri were:

To create awareness about the significance of Vasant Panchami and Saraswati Puja.

To highlight the importance of Goddess Saraswati as the source of knowledge and wisdom.

To familiarize students with the teachings and values of the sacred Shikshapatri.

To promote spiritual, cultural, and ethical values among students.

To encourage discipline, character building, and moral responsibility.

To inspire students to follow the path of truth, knowledge, and righteousness.

To provide a platform for students to express their thoughts and enhance their confidence.

To create a devotional, peaceful, and value-oriented environment in the school.

PROGRAM DETAILS

1. Lamp Lighting Ceremony

The program commenced with the auspicious lamp lighting ceremony conducted by respected teachers. The lighting of the lamp symbolized the removal of ignorance and darkness and the spreading of knowledge, wisdom, and positivity. It marked a graceful and divine beginning to the celebration and set a spiritual tone for the entire event.

2. Saraswati Pujan and Aarti

The Saraswati Pujan was performed with great devotion and reverence. The beautifully decorated Saraswati Murti created a serene and sacred environment. Students and teachers offered flowers and prayers, seeking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati for wisdom, knowledge, and success in their academic pursuits.

The Aarti was performed collectively, filling the surroundings with spiritual vibrations and devotion. The atmosphere became calm, peaceful, and spiritually uplifting, allowing everyone to connect deeply with the essence of the occasion.

3. Speech by Respected Paras Sir

Respected Paras Sir delivered an enlightening and impactful speech on the significance of 200 years of the Shikshapatri. He explained that the Shikshapatri, written by Bhagwan Swaminarayan, is not just a religious scripture but a complete guide to living a disciplined, moral, and virtuous life.

He emphasized that its teachings promote honesty, respect, self-control, and responsibility. He encouraged students to follow these principles in their daily lives and to become responsible and ethical individuals. His speech inspired students to understand the deeper meaning of values and apply them practically.

4. Speech by Nupur Ma'am

Nupur Ma'am delivered a thoughtful and motivating speech highlighting the importance of education and the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. She explained how knowledge plays a crucial role in shaping a person's future and character.

She encouraged students to remain focused, disciplined, and dedicated towards their studies. She also emphasized the importance of respecting teachers, parents, and elders. Her speech inspired students to work hard and strive for excellence in both academics and personal development.

5. Speech by Paresh Sir

Paresh Sir addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech that focused on the importance of education and moral values in life. He motivated students to develop good habits, maintain discipline, and always stay committed to their goals.

He also highlighted the relevance of cultural traditions and the need to stay connected to one's roots. His speech encouraged students to balance modern education with traditional values.

6. Speeches by Students

Students actively participated by delivering well-prepared speeches on various topics related to the occasion, such as:

The significance of Vasant Panchami

The importance of Goddess Saraswati in education

The teachings and moral values of the Shikshapatri

The students spoke with confidence and clarity, reflecting their understanding and respect for cultural and spiritual values. Their participation enhanced their communication skills and boosted their confidence.

7. Significance of Shikshapatri

A special segment of the programme focused on the teachings of the Shikshapatri. Students learned about its guidance on leading a disciplined and righteous life. The teachings emphasized values such as truthfulness, non-violence, respect, cleanliness, and responsibility.

This segment helped students understand the importance of moral values in daily life and encouraged them to follow these principles to become better individuals.

8. Collective Prayers

The programme concluded with collective prayers offered by students and teachers. Everyone prayed for knowledge, wisdom, academic excellence, and a bright future. The prayer session created a sense of unity, harmony, and positivity among all present.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

The celebration witnessed active and enthusiastic participation from students. They contributed through speeches, prayers, and maintaining discipline throughout the programme. Their sincerity, dedication, and involvement played a vital role in making the event successful.

Such participation not only enhances confidence and communication skills but also fosters teamwork, responsibility, and leadership qualities among students.

VALUES INCULCATED THROUGH THE PROGRAMME

The celebration helped students develop and strengthen important values such as:

Respect for knowledge and education

Spiritual awareness and devotion

Discipline and self-control

Moral values and character building

Cultural appreciation and respect for traditions

Unity, cooperation, and harmony

Responsibility and ethical behavior

Commitment towards excellence

CONCLUSION

The Vasant Panchami celebration, along with the commemoration of 200 years of the Shikshapatri, was a grand and meaningful success. The programme not only enriched students spiritually but also deepened their understanding of moral values and discipline.

Each segment of the event—from the lamp lighting ceremony and Saraswati Pujan to the inspiring speeches and collective prayers—contributed to making the celebration informative, engaging, and impactful.

The event successfully conveyed the importance of knowledge, values, and cultural heritage, inspiring students to become responsible, disciplined, and knowledgeable individuals who contribute positively to society.

MESSAGE

“May Goddess Saraswati bless everyone with wisdom, knowledge, and success.”
